When it was first published in 1875, The Cathedral Psalter, edited by Sir John Stainer and others, provided the standard to which others aspired, both in publication and performance. Now, over a century later, the tradition continues and history is repeating itself. St Paul’s Cathedral has published an entirely new version of its famous Psalter, with the familiar words of The Book of Common Prayer freshly pointed by John Scott, the Cathedral’s Director of Music, and the wide selection of chants being brought up to date with the addition of many new ones alongside well-known favourites.

The St Paul’s Cathedral Psalter is published by the Dean and Chapter of St Paul’s Cathedral, London, and is available from The Canterbury Press Norwich, St Mary’s Works, St Mary’s Plain, Norwich, Norfolk, NR3 3BH, England.

Day 24 Evening

Psalm 119

1 Beati immaculati
vv. 1-8 Kellow John Pye (1812-1901)

Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord.
Blessed are they that keep his testimonies: and seek him with their whole heart.
For they who do no wickedness walk in his ways.
Thou hast charged that we shall diligently keep thy commandments.
O that my ways were made so direct: that I might keep thy statutes.
So shall I not be confounded: while I have respect unto all thy commandments.
I will thank thee with an unfeigned heart: when I shall have learned the judgements of thy righteousness.
I will keep thy ceremonies: O forsake me not utterly.

Kellow John Pye: BMus (Oxon). Pianist and composer. As a student at the Royal Academy of Music in 1823 he received the first piano lesson ever to be given within its walls.
2 In quo corriget?
vv.9-16 James Nares (1715-1783)

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way: even by ruling himself after thy word.
With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not go wrong out of thy commandments.
Thy words have I hid within my heart: that I should not sin against thee.
Blessed art thou O Lord: O teach me thy statutes.
With my lips have I been telling of all the judgements of thy mouth.
I have had as great delight in the way of thy testimonies: as in all manner of riches.
I will talk of thy commandments: and have respect unto thy ways.
My delight shall be in thy statutes: and I will not forget thy word.

JAMES NARES: MusD (Cantab); Organist of York Minster (1735-1756); Organist of the Chapel Royal (1756-1783).

3 Retribue servo tuo
vv.17-24 George Mursell Garrett (1834-1897)

O do well unto thy servant: that I may live and keep thy word.
Open thou mine eyes: that I may see the wondrous things of thy law.
I am a stranger upon earth: O hide not thy commandments from me.
My soul breaketh out for the very fervent desire that it hath away unto thy judgements.
Thou hast rebuked the proud: and cursed are they that do err from thy commandments.
O turn from me shame and rebuke: for I have kept thy testimonies.
Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant is occupied in thy statutes.
For thy testimonies are my delight and my counsellors.

GEORGE MURSELL GARRETT: MusD (Cantab); Organist of Madras Cathedral (1854-1856); Organist of St John’s College, Cambridge (1856-1897).
4 Adhaesit pavimento
vv.25-32 Charles Hylton Stewart (1884-1932)

My soul cleaveth to the dust: O quicken thou me according to thy word.
I have acknowledged my ways and thou hearest me: O teach me thy statutes.
Make me to understand the way of thy commandments: and so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.
My soul melteth away for very heaviness: comfort thou me according to thy word.
Take me from the way of lying: and cause thou me to make much of thy law.
I have chosen the way of truth: and thy judgements have I laid before me.
I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O Lord, confound me not.
I will run the way of thy commandments: when thou hast set my heart at liberty.

CHARLES HYLTON STEWART: MA, MusB (Cantab), HonDMus (Oxon); Organist of Rochester Cathedral (1916-1930); Organist of Chester Cathedral (1920-1932); Organist of St George’s Chapel, Windsor 1932 (appointed in September, died in November 1932).

DAY 25 Morning
PSALM 119

5 Legem pone
vv.33-40 Sir George Thalben-Ball (1896-1987)

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keep it unto the end.
Give me understanding and I shall keep thy law: yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.
Make me to go in the path of thy commandments: for therein is my desire.
Incline my heart unto thy testimonies and not to covetousness.
O turn away mine eyes lest they behold vanity: and quicken thou me in thy way.
O stablish thy word in thy servant that I may fear thee.
Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of: for thy judgements are good.
Behold my delight is in thy commandments: O quicken me in thy righteousness.

SIR GEORGE THALBEN-BALL, CBE: DMus (Cantuar), HonDMus (Birmingham), HonFRCO; Organist of the Temple Church (1923-1982); Organist to the City of Birmingham (1942-1982).
\[6\] Et veniat super me
vv.41-48 Hezekiah West (d1826)

Let thy loving mercy come also unto me, O Lord: even thy salvation according unto thy word.
So shall I make answer unto my blasphemers: for my trust is in thy word.
O take not the word of thy truth utterly out of my mouth: for my hope is in thy judgements.
So shall I keep thy law, yea, for ever and ever.
And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy commandments.
I will speak of thy testimonies also even before kings: and will not be ashamed.
And my delight shall be in thy commandments which I have loved.
My hands also will I lift up to thy commandments which I have loved: and my study shall be in thy statutes.

HEZEKIAH WEST: He was a chorister at New College, Oxford, and later ‘Bible Clerk’ at the same establishment. In 1824 he published a collection of chants ‘... for the use of New College Chapel, Oxford.’

\[7\] Memor esto servi tui vv.49-56 John Jones (1728-1796)

O think upon thy servant as concerning thy word: wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust.
The same is my comfort in my trouble: for thy word hath quickened me.
The proud have had me exceedingly in derision: yet have I not shrinked from thy law.
For I remembered thine everlasting judgements, O Lord, and received comfort.
I am horribly afraid for the ungodly that forsake thy law.
Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.
I have thought upon thy name O Lord in the night-season: and have kept thy law.
This I had because I kept thy commandments.

JOHN JONES: Organist of the Temple Church, London (1749-1796); Organist of the Charterhouse (1753-1796); Organist of St Paul’s Cathedral (1755-1796). From 1755 until his death he held three posts simultaneously.
Portio mea, Domine

vv.57-64 Thomas Attwood (1765-1838)

Thou art my portion, O Lord: I have promised to keep thy law.
I made my humble petition in the presence with my whole heart: O be merciful unto me according to thy word.
I called mine own ways to remembrance: and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.
I made haste and prolonged not the time to keep thy commandments.
The congregations of the ungodly have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.
At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee: because of thy righteous judgements.
I am a companion of all them that fear thee and keep thy commandments.
The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: O teach me thy statutes.

THOMAS ATTWOOD: Pupil of Mozart, Organist of St Paul’s Cathedral (1796-1838).

Bonitatem fecisti

vv.65-72 Wilfred John Mothersole (b1898)

O Lord, thou hast dealt graciously with thy servant: according unto thy word.
O learn me true understanding and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.
Before I was troubled I went wrong: but now have I kept thy word.
Thou art good and gracious: O teach me thy statutes.
The proud have imagined a lie against me: but I will keep my commandments with my whole heart.
Their heart is as fat as brawn: but my delight hath been in thy law.
It is good for me that I have been in trouble: that I may learn thy statutes.
The law of thy mouth is dearer unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

WILFRED JOHN MOTHERSOLE: Assistant Organist of St Edmundsbury Cathedral (1923-1978).
DAY 25 Evening

PSALM 119

-Manus tuae fecerunt me-vv.73-80 Highmore Skeats (d1831)

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: O give me understanding that I may learn thy commandments.
They that fear thee will be glad when they see me: because I have put my trust in thy word. I know, O Lord, that thy judgements are right: and that thou of very faithfulness hast caused me to be troubled.
O let thy merciful kindness be my comfort: according to thy word unto thy servant.
O let thy loving mercies come unto me that I may live: for thy law is my delight.
Let the proud be confounded for they go wickedly about to destroy me: but I will be occupied in thy commandments.
Let such as fear thee and have known thy testimonies: be turned unto me.
O let my heart be sound in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.

HIGHMORE SKEATS: Organist of Ely Cathedral (1778-1803); Organist of Canterbury Cathedral (1803-1831). Or possibly his son, Highmore Skeats (c1787-1835) Organist of Ely Cathedral (1803-1830); Organist of St George’s Chapel, Windsor (1830-1835).

-Defecit anima mea-vv.81-88 Henry John Gauntlett (1805-1876)

My soul hath longed for thy salvation: and I have a good hope because of thy word. Mine eyes long sore for thy word: saying, O when wilt thou comfort me?
For I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet do I not forget thy statutes.
How many are the days of thy servant: when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me? The proud have digged pits for me: which are not after thy law.
All thy commandments are true: they persecute me falsely, O be thou my help.
They had almost made an end of me upon earth: but I forsook not thy commandments. O quicken me after thy loving-kindness: and so shall I keep the testimonies of thy mouth.

HENRY JOHN GAUNTLETT: DMus (Cantuar). Lawyer and Musician. Organist of various London churches. In about 1842 he gave up his law practice and devoted himself to music. He was largely responsible for the introduction of the C organ in England, in place of the old F and G instruments.
In aeternum, Domine
vv.89-96 Philip Armes (1836-1908)

O Lord, thy word endureth for ever in heaven.
Thy truth also remaineth from one generation to another: thou hast laid the foundation of the earth and it abideth.
They continue this day according to thine ordinance: for all things serve thee.
If my delight had not been in thy law: I should have perished in my trouble.
I will never forget thy commandments: for with them thou hast quickened me.
I am thine O save me: for I have sought thy commandments.
The ungodly laid wait for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.
I see that all things come to an end: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

PHILIP ARMES: DMus (Oxon), HonFRCO; Organist of Chichester Cathedral (1861-1863); Organist of Durham Cathedral (1863-1907).

Quomodo dilexi!
vv.97-104 Sir Stanley Robert Marchant (1883-1949)

Lord, what love have I unto thy law: all the day long is my study in it.
Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.
I have more understanding than my teachers: for thy testimonies are my study.
I am wiser than the aged: because I keep thy commandments.
I have refrained my feet from every evil way: that I may keep thy word.
I have not shrunk from thy judgements, for thou teachest me.
O how sweet are thy words unto my throat: yea sweeter than honey unto my mouth.
Through thy commandments I get understanding: therefore I hate all evil ways.

SIR STANLEY ROBERT MARCHANT, CVO: MA, DMus (Oxon), FRCO; Sub-Organist of St Paul’s Cathedral (1916-1927); Organist of St Paul’s Cathedral (1927-1936); Principal of the Royal Academy of Music (1936-1949); King Edward Professor of Music, London University (1937-1948).
DAY 26 Morning
PSALM 119

14 Lucerna pedibus meis

vv. 105-112 The Revd Sir Frederick Arthur Gore Ouseley (1825-1889)

Thy word is a lantern unto my feet: and a light unto my paths.
I have sworn and am steadfastly purposed to keep thy righteous judgements.
I am troubled above measure: quicken me, O Lord, according to thy word.
Let the free-will offerings of my mouth please thee, O Lord: and teach me thy judgements.
My soul is alway in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law.
The ungodly have laid a snare for me: but yet I swerved not from thy commandments.
Thy testimonies have I claimed as mine heritage for ever: and why? They are the very joy of my heart.
I have applied my heart to fulfil thy statutes alway even unto the end.

THE REVD SIR FREDERICK OUSELEY: MA, DMus (Oxon), HonDMus (Dunelm), HonMusD (Dublin); Precentor of Hereford Cathedral (1855-1889); Professor of Music, Oxford University (1855-1889). Founder (1856) and first Warden of St Michael’s College, Tenbury.

15 Iniquos odio habui

vv. 113-120 Sir Herbert Stanley Oakeley (1830-1903)

I hate them that imagine evil things: but thy law do I love.
Thou art my defence and my shield: and my trust is in thy word.
Away from me ye wicked: I will keep the commandments of my God.
O stablish me according to thy word that I may live: and let me not be disappointed of my hope.
Hold thou me up and I shall be safe: yea, my delight shall be ever in thy statutes.
Thou hast trodden down all them that depart from thy statutes: for they imagine but deceit.
Thou puttest away all the ungodly of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.
My flesh trembleth for fear of thee: and I am afraid of thy judgements.

SIR HERBERT STANLEY OAKELEY: MusD (Cantuar), MA, HonDMus (Dublin); Professor of Music, Edinburgh University (1865-1891); Composer of music to Her Majesty in Scotland (1881-1903).
Feci judicium

vv.121-128
Sir John Goss (1800-1880)

I deal with the thing that is lawful and right: O give me not over unto mine oppressors. Make thou thy servant to delight in that which is good: that the proud do me no wrong. Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health: and for the word of thy righteousness. O deal with thy servant according to thy loving mercy: and teach me thy statutes. I am thy servant, O grant me understanding: that I may know thy testimonies. It is time for thee Lord to lay to thine hand: for they have destroyed thy law. For I love thy commandments above gold and precious stone. Therefore hold I straight all thy commandments: and all false ways I utterly abhor.

SIR JOHN GOSS: HonMusD (Cantab), FRCO; Organist of St Paul’s Cathedral (1833-1872); composer to the Chapel Royal (1856-1880).

Mirabilia

vv.129-136
James Coward (1824-1880)

Thy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them. When thy word goeth forth: it giveth light and understanding unto the simple. I opened my mouth and drew in my breath: for my delight was in thy commandments. O look thou upon me and be merciful unto me: as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name. Order my steps in thy word: and so shall no wickedness have dominion over me. O deliver me from the wrongful dealings of men: and so shall I keep thy commandments. Shew the light of thy countenance upon thy servant: and teach me thy statutes. Mine eyes gush out with water: because men keep not thy law.

JAMES COWARD: Organist of St George’s, Bloomsbury; Organist of the Crystal Palace, Sydenham (1857-1880).

Justus es, Domine

vv.137-144
Edward John Hopkins (1818-1901)

Righteous art thou, O Lord: and true is thy judgement. The testimonies that thou hast commanded are exceeding righteous and true. My zeal hath even consumed me: because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is tried to the uttermost: and thy servant loveth it. I am small and of no reputation: yet do I not forget thy commandments. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness: and thy law is the truth. Trouble and heaviness have taken hold upon me: yet is my delight in thy commandments. The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: O grant me understanding and I shall live.

EDWARD HOPKINS: DMus (Cantuar), FRCO; Organist of the Temple Church (1843-1848).
DAY 26 Evening
PSALM 119

Clamavi in toto corde meo
vv.145-152 Alan Stephen Hemmings (b1934)

I call with my whole heart: hear me, O Lord, I will keep thy statutes.
Yea, even unto thee do I call: help me and I will keep thy testimonies.
Early in the morning do I cry unto thee: for in thy word is my trust.
Mine eyes prevent the night-watches: that I might be occupied in thy words.
Hear my voice, O Lord, according unto thy loving-kindness: quicken me according as thou art wont.
They draw nigh that of malice persecute me: and are far from thy law.
Be thou nigh at hand, O Lord: for all thy commandments are true.
As concerning thy testimonies I have known long since: that thou hast grounded them for ever.

ALAN STEPHEN HEMMINGS: MA (Cantab); Organ student of St John’s College, Cambridge (1953-1956).

Vide humilitatem
vv.153-160 Thomas Attwood Walmisley (1814-1856)

O consider mine adversity and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.
Avenge thou my cause and deliver me: quicken me according to thy word.
Health is far from the ungodly: for they regard not thy statutes.
Great is thy mercy, O Lord: quicken me as thou art wont.
Many there are that trouble me and persecute me: yet do I not swerve from thy testimonies.
It grieveth me when I see the transgressors: because they keep not thy law.
Consider, O Lord, how I love thy commandments: O quicken me according to thy loving-kindness.
Thy word is true from everlasting: all the judgements of thy righteousness endure for ever more.

THOMAS ATTWOOD WALMISLEY: MA, MusD (Cantab); Organist of Trinity and St John’s Colleges, Cambridge (1833-1856); Professor of Music, Cambridge University (1836-1856).
Principes persecuti sunt

vv.161-168 Lord Mornington (1735-1781)

Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of the word. I am as glad of thy word as one that findeth great spoils. As for lies, I hate and abhor them: but thy law do I love. Seven times a day do I praise thee: because of thy righteous judgements. Great is the peace that they have who love thy law; and they are not offended at it. Lord I have looked for thy saving health: and done after thy commandments. My soul hath kept thy testimonies and loved them exceedingly. I have kept thy commandments and testimonies: for all my ways are before thee.

LORD MORNINGTON (GARRETT COLLY WELLESLEY): MA, HonMusD (Dublin); Professor of Music, Trinity College, Dublin (1764-1774). He was the father of the first Duke of Wellington.

Appropinquet deprecatio

vv.169-176 Sir John Goss (1800-1880)

Let my complaint come before thee, O Lord: give me understanding according to thy word. Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word. My lips shall speak of thy praise: when thou hast taught me thy statutes. Yea, my tongue shall sing of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteous. Let thine hand help me: for I have chosen thy commandments. I have longed for thy saving health, O Lord: and in thy law is my delight. O let my soul live and it shall praise thee: and thy judgements shall help me. I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost: O seek thy servant for I do not forget thy commandments.

DAY 28 Evening

PSALM 136 Confitemini

Jonathan Leonard Bielby (b1944)

O give thanks unto the Lord for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever. O give thanks unto the God of all gods: for his mercy endureth for ever. O thank the Lord of all lords: for his mercy endureth for ever. Who only doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever. Who by his excellent wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever. Who laid out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever. Who hath made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever. The sun to rule the day: for his mercy endureth for ever. The moon and the stars to govern the night: for his mercy endureth for ever.
Who smote Egypt with their first-born: for his mercy endureth for ever;
And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever;
With a mighty hand and stretched out arm: for his mercy endureth for ever;
Who divided the Red sea in two parts: for his mercy endureth for ever;
And made Israel to go through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever.
But as Pharaoh and his host, he overthrew them in the Red sea: for his mercy endureth for ever.
Who led his people through the wilderness: for his mercy endureth for ever.
Who smote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever;
Yea, and slew mighty kings: for his mercy endureth for ever;
Sehon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever;
And Og the king of Basan: for his mercy endureth for ever;
And gave away their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever;
Even for an heritage unto Israel, his servant: for his mercy endureth for ever.
Who remembered us when we were in trouble: for his mercy endureth for ever;
And hath delivered us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.
Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever.
O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever.
O give thanks unto the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

JONATHAN LEONARD BIELBY: MA, MusB (Cantab), FRCO; Organist of Wakefield Cathedral from 1970.

24 PSALM 137 Super flumina
Craig Sellar Lang (1891-1971)

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept: when we remembered thee, O Sion.
As for our harps we hanged them up upon the trees that are therein.
For they that led us away captive required of us then a song and melody in our heaviness:
sing us one of the songs of Sion.
How shall we sing the Lord’s song in a strange land?
If I forget thee, O Jerusalem: let my right hand forget her cunning.
If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the root of my mouth: yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem in my mirth.
Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Jerusalem: how they said down with it, down with it even to the ground.
O daughter of Babylon wasted with misery: yea, happy shall he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us.
Blessed shall he be that taketh thy children and throweth them against the stones.

CRAIG SELLAR LANG: DMus (Dunelm); Assistant Music Master, Royal Naval College, Osborne (1913-1920); Assistant Music Master, Clifton College (1920-1929); Director of Music, Christ’s Hospital (1929-1945). Studied composition with Stanford.
I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before gods will I sing praise unto thee.
I will worship toward thy holy temple and praise thy Name, because of thy loving kindness and truth: for thou hast magnified thy Name and thy word above all things.
When I called upon thee thou hearest me: and enduedst my soul with much strength.
All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord: for they have heard the words of thy mouth.
Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.
For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: as for the proud he beholdeth them afar off.
Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies and thy right hand shall save me.
The Lord shall make good his loving-kindness towards me: yea thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever despise not then the works of thine own hands.

JAMES TURLE: Organist of Westminster Abbey (1831-1882).
